

SPRING 2022 FACULTY AND STAFF QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE FOR STUDENTS OF CONCERN

REPORTING A STUDENT OF CONCERN

The Students of Concern Team is a campus resource that assists students who:

- may be in distress or experiencing challenging or difficult life circumstances.
- are exhibiting aggressive, concerning or disruptive behaviors.

The team provides early intervention, resources and referrals to these students. Faculty and staff members are encouraged to report Students of Concern when:

- your efforts to manage a behavioral issue have not resolved the problem.
- you are concerned about the welfare of a student, yourself, and other students.
- a student asks for help in dealing with personal issues that are outside your role.
- you have referred the student for assistance in the past and there seems to be no improvement.

Visit studentaffairs.louisiana.edu/dean-students/students/report-student-concern to report a student or for more information.

ISOLATION AND QUARANTINE

If a student is told to quarantine or isolate because they have been exposed to COVID-19 or are presumed positive, they must complete the isolation and quarantine form at <https://bit.ly/2W3y8z2>

REPORTING ABSENCES

Faculty and staff members are asked to encourage students to use the Dean of Students' Absence Reporting Form if they will be absent from class because of personal or health reasons.

Students should complete the reporting form by visiting <https://bit.ly/3q8h2wi>

RETURNING TO CLASS

Students must complete the Student Return to Class Self-Certification for COVID-19 Form and return to Student Health Services before a release from isolation and quarantine is granted.
